

Reasons

Reasons for becoming a visiting student

- We offer a high quality teaching.
- We are an ambitious university with an old academic tradition of 700 years.
- We are a small university, with approximately 10,000 students. This enables human contact among the different members of the university community.
- We make available for students and professional the human and technological resources suitable for a quality training.
- We are in a city with a high quality of urban living, with one of the lowest unemployment taxes in Spain, safe and pleasant.
- We offer a rich sociocultural context in which students from other places can benefit from this enriching experience.
- We would also like to benefit from the enriching experiences you can share with us during your stay in the UdL.
